

Growth Group Questions:

Psalm 90:2 Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

Respond to this statement: I don't think there's anything more thrilling than finding out what God is like—not just theology, but actually encountering him for yourself in person—experiencing the God of the Bible.

Discuss this: Jesus brought us the tenderness of God when he called him “Abba Father.”

Read:

Isaiah 40:12-15 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand,
or with the breadth of his hand marked off the heavens?

Who has held the dust of the earth in a basket,
or weighed the mountains on the scales
and the hills in a balance?

¹³Who can fathom the Spirit^{of} of the LORD,
or instruct the LORD as his counselor?

¹⁴Whom did the LORD consult to enlighten him,
and who taught him the right way?

Who was it that taught him knowledge,
or showed him the path of understanding?

¹⁵Surely the nations are like a drop in a bucket;
they are regarded as dust on the scales;
he weighs the islands as though they were fine dust.

How have you experienced this in your life?: God is the most solid thing there is, the most solid reality.

Discuss: God didn't decide to exist; He didn't start himself. He transcends creation.
